JAZZ SINGER

Profile

Born in Ishikawa Prefecture. A female jazz singer with a doctorate in science.

She moved to the United States in 2010 and has performed at hotels, restaurants, bars, and jazz festivals in San Francisco, Monterey, Las Vegas, and other locations.

After returning to Japan in 2016, she has been touring alternately between the United States and Japan. She has many fans, highly praised for her emotional singing ability, which focuses on standards and starts from a low tone. She won the Best Love Spirit Song Artist award at the World Music Awards held in San Francisco in December 2016. Her first album, "Tranquility and Passion," was released simultaneously in Japan and the United States in 2015. Her second album, "FLOW," was released in October 2018.

She won the Best Catwalk Award at the Mrs. Japan Kanagawa in 2020 and the Grand Prix at the Miss Asian Beauty Tokyo Selection in 2021.

She has obtained qualifications as a music therapist and voice yoga instructor, and has given lectures at c ultural schools and other venues, as well as working hard to promote healthy development through singing. She says that connecting with people through music is what gives her meaning in life.

She is a promising vocalist who aims to sing not only in Japan and the US, but all over the world.
